DIRECTOR'S NOTE:

Thank you for coming to see Hard-Boiled Eggnog. We have had a lot of fun putting this show together for you and we hope it serves as the perfect kick off to your holiday season. Blaine Community Theater is dedicated to producing exciting plays, bringing actors in to shake up to local events, and offering educational and performance opportunities for kids and adults alike.

And, of course, we could never do these things without you, our audience. We realize you have a lot of opportunities for spending your entertainment dollars here in Whatcom County and we thank you for choosing us. There are many ways to support community theater in Blaine, including ticket purchases, volunteering, and spreading the word about this great Christmas Noir.

I could not be happier with the people we've brought together to bring this play to you and your loved ones. This play is fun and silly but has a great message about feeling the many emotions that may come up during "the happiest time of the year." We're glad to have you along for the ride. I guess I should also make a quick disclaimer for you all: no, Santa Clauses were harmed in the production of this play. Enjoy!

Ramsey McDonald – Toy Soldier 3

Ramsey once replaced all references to the baby Jesus in a Christmas Pageant with the phrase "Badoongy Face." He's trying out secular theater now.

Rowen McDonald – Toy Soldier 4

Rowen loves otters and wishes you a very merry "Ooga Booga."

Kevin Six – Director

Kevin has been acting, directing and writing for the stage for over 30 years. He has appeared at Compass, the Old Globe, Fritz, the Marquis, Swedenborg Hall, Intrepid Shakespeare and Scripps Ranch theaters in San Diego. More recently, Kevin performed in "The Harry and Sam Dialogues" at the Bellingham Theatre Guild and in "Wyrd Sisters" at Blaine Community Theater.

Talia Deines – Production Stage Manager

Talia hates haikus
No counting in poetry
Hope she doesn't read this

Jennie Olson Six – Assistant Stage Manager

Jennie Olson Six is a multi-hyphenated artist now thanks to this show. She hopes the whole production has a wonderful time sharing this funny show. She is very tired. jennieosix.com

Rosi Lopez – Assistant Stage Manager

Rosi wants a hippopotamus for Christmas.

Nick McDonald - Producer

Nick McDonald is a battle hardened theatrical director and technical designer, and serves as the production manager for BCT. He has OTD—obsessive theatre disorder—and believes that if he doesn't work on at least three productions a year The Great Raven will devour the moon and the tah-tah-kle'-ah will emerge from their underground nests and feed on humanity like cattle.

Victor Thornton - Paul

Victor debuted at BCT in “Everlasting Chocolate Therapy” last summer. He has kindly volunteered to do all of his friends’ math homework over the winter break.

Zoey Parks – Cinnamon Sugar

Zoey is excited to be in her first play outside of high school! Previous productions include “Xanadu” and “Us And Them.” She is so thankful to everyone who’s supported her love for theater.

Mikael R. McDonald – Mrs. Figgy

Mikael began work on this production in 2007, which was about 10 years before the playwright wrote it. Actors she has personally brought into this world and shoved onto the stage now account for over 20% of the cast.

Jacob Hall – Snowcop 1

This is Jacob's second show with BCT, his first being “Wyrd Sisters” (you may recognize his cherubic face.) He was voted the second most attractive cast member of this production, the first was a tie between everybody else.

Donovan McDonald – Snowcop 2

Donovan started theater in 2019 with the BCT Halloween show “The Witches.” Since then, he’s become more sarcastic, more antisocial, and slightly better at theatrics.

Debora Jo Earl – Toy Soldier 1

For years, Debora has enjoyed being in the audience, but in September 2022, she was inspired to audition with Blaine Community Theater. This is her second production here in the Black Box Theater and she's loving it. After being asked what she really wants for Christmas, her answer was "a really good toolbox."

Sandy Brewer – Toy Soldier 2

Sandy inspired the song “You’re So Vain” and is the reincarnation of the fictional character Ebenezer Scrooge. His moustache is actually just a collection of trophy hairs he plucked from the heads of children he refused to work with on stage.

CAST & CREW BIOS:

Renee Scheib - Jangle

Renee has been involved in Blaine Theater Arts for 14 years now. She particularly enjoys musicals and crazy comedies. She thanks her family and community for the continued support of her passion!

Dana Ruhl – Mrs. Claus

Dana has been in her happy place performing with the Blaine Community Theater for the last few years. You may have recently seen her as The Duke in “Wyrd Sisters.” She is enjoying her role as Mrs. Claus and has no worries that everything will work out. Have a Merry Christmas, Dear, and enjoy her World Famous Snickerdoodles!

Robb Deines – Jack Frost

Robb is new to BCT and loving every minute of it. It was a long time ago in a place called Colorado that the call of the stage devoured Robb. His background was music, but he was asked to join the chorus of "Camelot." That led to "Hello Dolly" and then Tevye in "Fiddler on the Roof." Somehow musical theatre had found Robb. Other productions include "A Funny thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" and Neil Simon's "God's Favorite." He has worked in all parts of production from set construction to assistant director and can't get enough of the "Smell of the Crowd."

Cynthia Ridings - Franky

This is Cynthia’s second production with the Blaine Community Theater. She recently played Mrs. Vitoller in “Wyrd Sisters.” She wishes everyone a happy holiday season, and she hopes you enjoy the show.

Rebecca Wright - Mabel

Rebecca has been performing in the Pacific Northwest for over 15 years, primarily as a pit musician and with her barbershop harmony chorus and quartet. In the summer of 2021, she joined BCT for “Pirates of Penzance” and has thoroughly enjoyed being a part of the growth of the theater community in Blaine.
